

To determine the reservists and bound to military service status the one is to provide with:

1. One of the following documents:

- officer's or general's identification certificate - for officer personnel of the Armed Forces of Ukraine (copy);
- warrant officer's identification certificate - for those NCO's military rank of warrant officer and chief warrant officer (senior warrant officer) (copy);
- military ID, NCO - ordinary soldiers, NCO contractual military service (except warrant officers, senior warrant officers) and military service, as well as students of military schools (copy).

2. A certificate from the military commissariat on a letterhead, where the reference number, date of issue, full name, date of mobilization, military unit, position and signature of the military commissioner or other authorized person, his full name and position, executor's name and phone number, military commissariat seal (original; data specified in the certificate must match the data in other documents or the written explanation of the reasons) should be specified.